HORNET

Dedication

We, the Class of 1965, dedicate the 1965 Hornet to Mrs. Evelyn Reeder, who has been our class sponsor during our freshmen and senior years.

We appreciate the good job she had done in teaching us English and speech. In addition, this year she has been the advisor for the National Honor Society.

After teaching eight years at C-R, she will be missed by everyone next year.

Class History

On a morning in September, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Reeder, and Mr. Jenkins held their breath as the new group of freshmen entered Cory-Rawson Halls. It would be these teachers' jobs to introduce these eager young students to the ways of high school life.

Two students new to the class as well as the school were Ron Blair and Iyelene Kinney. Leaving us this year were Janice Augsburger, Terry Cupples, Iyelene Kinney, and Charlotte Long.

The class chose as President, John Collins; Vice-President, Dave Scoles; Secretary, Ruth Ann Young; and Treasurer, Pamela Falk.

As sophomores we began to feel quite important. Mr. Marshall, Mrs. Tippet, and Mr. Lee very subtly showed us the error of our ways.

The class was now better acquainted and, as we chose our officers, a few Rawsonites cast votes for a Mt. Cory nominee, and vice-versa. The results were: President, Wayne Yoakam; Vice-President, Earl Bixel; Secretary, Ron Taylor; and Treasurer, Jon Dukes.

We added to our number Phillip Basquez, Terry Cupples, Evonne Goings, Lynette Martin, Sharon Montgomery, Bonnie Nunn and Patricia Raines. We lost Phillip Basquez, Ron Blair, Harold Boysel, Patricia Raines, Kate Taylor, James Victory, Geoffrey Wolfrom, and James Womack.

As Juniors we anxiously awaited the arrival of our rings. We were aided in the planning of the prom, "Red Sails in the Sunset", by our advisors Mr. Deeds, Mrs. Davies, and Mrs. Seitz.

Under the able direction of Mr. Berry, the comedy "Off the Tracks" was presented. The President, Wayne Yoakam; the Vice-President, Chuck Sullivan; the Secretary, Dave Scoles, and the Treasurer, Jon Dukes served us faithfully during this eventful year.

During the year, Lynette Martin, Kenneth Rettig, and Pam Weisenborn left us.

Now, as seniors, we have Wayne Yoakam as President; Chuck Sullivan as Vice-President; Dave Scoles as Secretary; and Jon Dukes as Treasurer. Mr. Clevidence, Mr. Berry, and Mrs. Reeder have helped to guide us in this, our last year, towards a graduation that will be followed by successful and meaningful lives.

We added to our graduating class Lewis Benton, Linda Orwick, and Geoffrey Wolfrom.

Last Will And Testament

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1965, Cory-Rawson High School, Hancock County, Ohio, being of sound mind and body, realizing the impossibility of forever keeping these things which we hold so dear, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills here-to-fore by us:

ARTICLE I

To the Faculty, we will our ability to be perfect angels.

ARTICLE II

To our Sponsors, Mrs. Reeder, Mr. Clevidence, and Mr. Berry, we will our ability to be cooperative.

ARTICLE III

To the Juniors, we will our ability to be such good examples.

ARTICLE IV

To the Sophomores, we will our ability to yell the loudest in pep session.

ARTICLE V

To the Freshmen, we will our ability to walk, not run, down the halls.

ARTICLE VI

We, the members of the Senior Class, individually will the following:

I, James Babcock, will my ability to run to William Shackelford.

I, Roger Babcock, will my ability to skip school and not get caught to Larry Henry.

I, Angela Baier, will my German dictionary to enrich the school library.

I, Lynn Bauman, will my ability to pass Latin to all the freshmen who need it.

I, Lewis Benton, will my short height to Jo Ann Ferrenberg.

I, Ian Betts, will my genuine German beer mug to Larry Henry.

I, Earl Bixel, will my gifted hands to Bill Johnson so he can slop'em in, too.

I, Kathy Blackburn, will my ability to stay away from Bluffton College to Mr. Sprunger.

I, Rachel Bower, will my board which fits in between bucket seats to Joyce Young.

I, Myra Bowman, will my ability to get along with Ada boys to Pam Decker.

I, Mary Ann Cole, will my Wish-nik to anyone who can afford to feed and clothe him.

I, John Collins, will my 76th seat in second period study hall to Mr. Clawson, so that he may sleep in it.

I, Terry Cupples, will my office in the Muckey Moose Club to Burnette Shilling.

I, Darl Deeds, will my ability to do nothing and get something out of it, to Bill Beagle.

I, Darlene Deeds, will my twin brother to any girl who wants him. Have fun!

I, John Deeds, will my ability to farm to Bill Beagle, so he can become a great farmer.

I, Jon Dukes, will my ability to play ping-pong to Pete Wilson.

I, Pamela Falk, will my naturally straight hair to Don Stakland.

I, Norma Fenstermaker, will my ability to talk fast and long and not say anything to anyone who can use it.

I, Roger Freed, will my dirty sneakers to Roger Merchant for cold nights.

I, Don Frommer, will my ability to mind my study hall teachers to William Shackelford.

I, Evonne Goings, will my ability to be the only P.K. in the high school to anyone wanting the opportunity.

I, Jerry Griggs, will my ability to act up in shop class and get away with it to Phil Dever.

I, Nadine Harris, will "Ray", my bassoon, to Pam Frazier. Practice hard!

I, Edward Hummon, will my ability to keep my mouth shut to John Brewster.

I, Sheryl Inbody, will my ability to make quick changes on the football field to Debbie Redd and the other majorettes.

I, David Krautter, will my seat in chorus to Burnette Shilling.

I, Barbara Kurt, will my overly used, patched, gym suit to any girl that is in desperate need of one.

I, Marlenne Leeper, will all my Law tests to Mr. Rossman, who, I am sure, can use them as bad examples in future classes.

I, Glenda Lootens, will my ability to talk too much in Mr. Deeds' study hall to any unlucky Junior.

I, Sharon Loy, will my Problems Book to Mr. Sprunger, if he thinks he can handle it better than I did.

I, Janis Marshall, will my confusion to any incoming freshman, who doesn't know what he is doing.

I, Marty Marshall, will my managing ability to Merle Fenstermaker for the up coming football season.

I, Marcia Meyer, will my uncoordination to Janice Hartman.

I, Sharon Montgomery, will my honesty with Mr. Sprunger about my gym clothes to Patty Bell.

I, Marilyn Nessler, will my ability to eat alot and not gain weight to anyone who is on a diet.

I, Bonnie Nunn, will my ability to chew gum and not get caught to anyone who wants it.

I, Carla Osborn, will my ability to get along with the Problems teacher to anyone who doesn't.

I, Linda Orwick, will my ability to walk to Doris Reichley.

I, Judy Patton, will my natural curly hair to anyone who wants it.

I, Sharon Pore, will all my old love lives to Miss Belleville.

I, Christine Rauch, will my inability to make a will to anyone who thinks its easy.

I, Donna Redick, will my torn up, tattered business English book to my cousin, Mr. Rossman.

I, Ruth Ellen Reel, will my locker to Bill Beagle. (open it all you want next year!)

I, David Reese, will my ability to think up dumb arguments in Problem's Class to any Senior who wants to.

I, Linda Reiter, will my ability not to get caught talking in music class to Linda Morrison.

I, Karen Ridenour, will all my used chewing gum and their wrappers to Mr. Phil Sprunger.

I, Carolyn Ripley, will my long ponytail to Mr. Clevidence.

I, Karen Ruppriht, will my ability to get caught talking in study hall to anyone who doesn't.

I, David Scoles, will my ability to pump gas to Nancy "Grease monkey" Latham.

I, Ralph Shackelford (Jr.), will my ability to own a car that takes two people to drive it instead of one.

I, Diane Staley, will my gym suit to anyone who can wear it.

I, James Steiner, will my place-kicking ability to Jim (Claude) Ream.

I, Chuck Sullivan, will my ability to dominate the music classes to Mr. Clawson.

I, Ronnie Taylor, will my blonde hair to Davey Joe Brewster.

I, Barbara Von Stein, will my sequin majorette uniform to Roger Merchant to wear in their musical group.

I, David Von Stein, will my ability to have an ink pen for Bookkeeping Class to Bill Beagle.

I, Gregory Warren, will my ability to trade answers in Trig Class to anyone who wants it.

I, Diane Watkins, will my clumsiness of spilling malts at B.G. to anyone who goes there.

I, Ruth Weihrauch, will my ability to blush easily to anyone who wishes to have it.

I, Nelson Welch, will my ability to keep my mouth shut to John Brewster.

I, Dennis Wynkoop, will my ability to drive safe and sensible to Phil Dever.

I, Wayne Yoakam, will my wavy hair to all the British singing stars-my glasses to anyone who wants to look for their scalp.

I, Ruth Ann Young, will my height to Cheryl Hartman, in case Bill ever decides to grow.

I, Edwin Zeisloft, will my ability to get along with Mr. Sprunger to Don Dorman.

Football Highlights

RIVERSIDE

The Hornets started the season off on the right foot at Riverside with a 27-12 victory after leading 19-6 at half time. Bill Johnson scored two TD's. Also scoring was Nelson Schaller on a recovery of a punt blocked by Ron Taylor and Steve Beagle.

McCOMB

The Hornets and the Panthers fought to a dead-lock 20-20. Bill Johnson with two TD's and Terry Cupples on a pass from Steve Beagle hit the Hornets scoring column

LEIPSIC

A good effort demolished Leipsic 48-0, as the Hornets upped their record to 2-0-1. Mike Von Stein, only a sophomore, was the leader with the help of the other team members.

ARLINGTON

Arlington was no match for the Hornets this year as Bill Johnson led the Hornets to a 30-14 victory, our first in ten years over Arlington. Ron Taylor, Mike Waltz, Steve Beagle each scoring a TD along with Bill Johnson's two.

ARCADIA

The Hornets went down to their first defeat against Arcadia 26-8 spoiling our Homecoming. Bill Johnson scored our 8 points.

VAN BUREN

The Hornets were ahead in every category except the score, as Van Buren surprised the Hornets 7-6. Johnson scored our only touchdown.

VANLUE

The third straight loss for the Hornets as Van-lue beat us 20-8. The Hornets couldn't move the ball once inside the 10 yard line. A pass from Mike Von Stein to Terry Cupples gave us our touchdown and Johnson ran for the extra points.

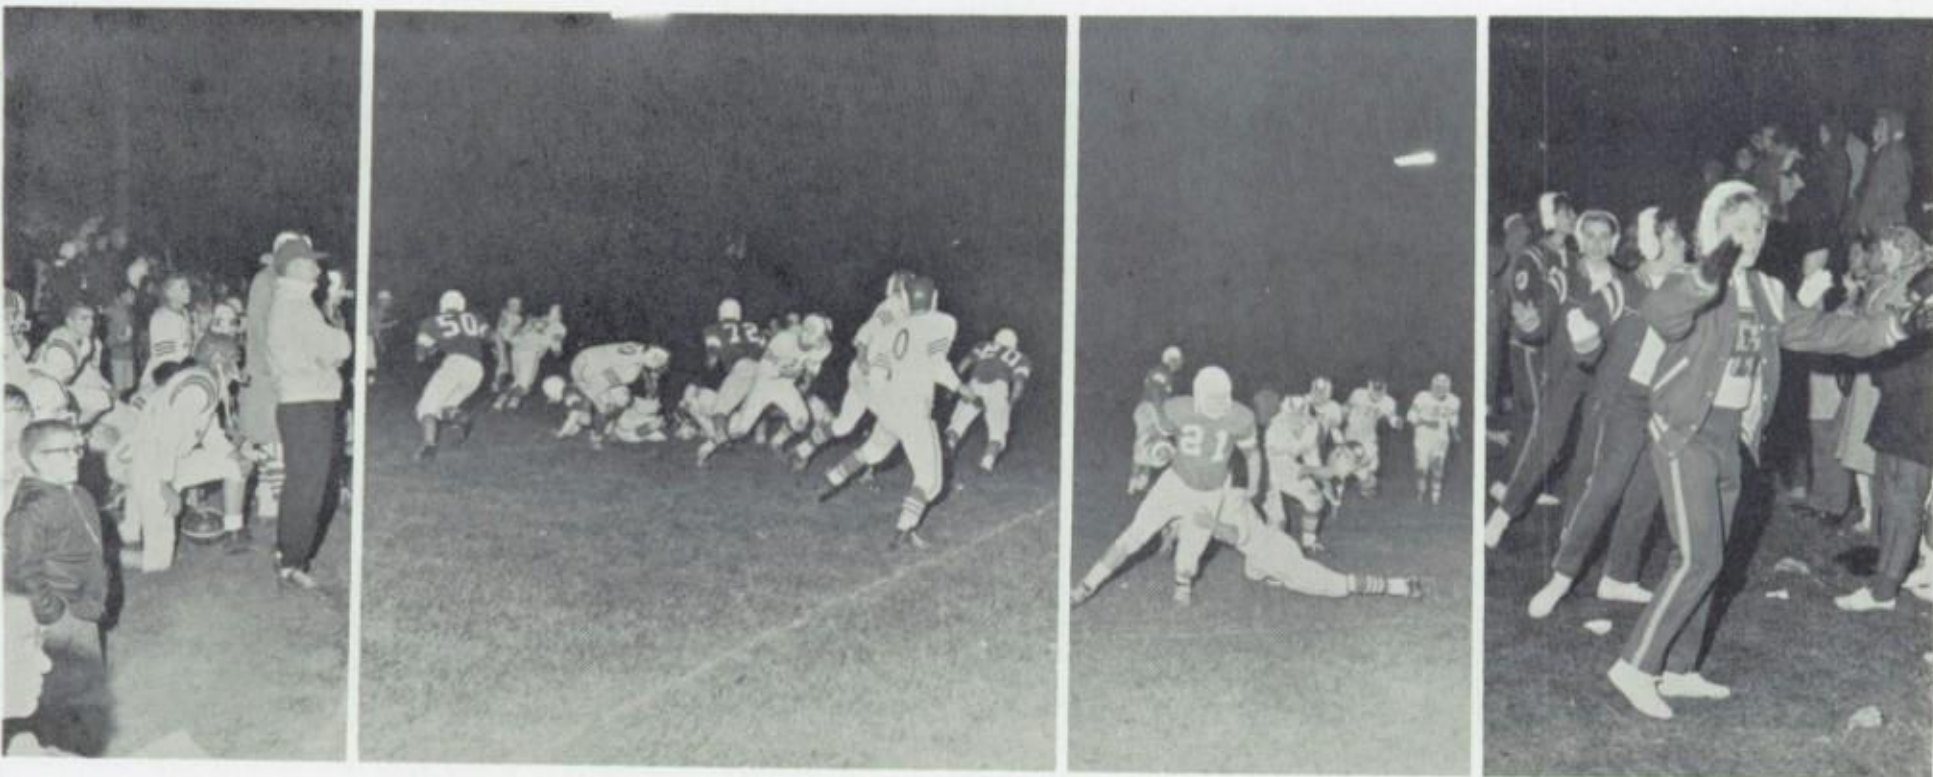

LIBERTY-BENTON

Bill Johnson and Earl Bixel led the Hornets to a 20-6 victory over the Eagles. This extended our winning streak over the Eagles, who have never defeated us.

PERRY

Bill Johnson led the Hornets to a 32-0 victory over Lima Perry with three touchdowns to give the team a 5-3-1 record for the year. Also scoring in this game was Steve Beagle and Ron Taylor.

Basketball Highlights

LEIPSIC

The Hornets started the 1964-65 Basketball Season off on the right foot as the varsity and reserves both defeated the Leipsic Vikings. Earl Bixel's 14 points and Dave Krautter and Mike Waltz 12 points apiece led the varsity to a 57-54 margin. Cupples and Johnson bucketed 9 apiece.

Reserves: C-R 38-32

COLUMBUS GROVE

Cupples scored 28 points and Bixel 12 but it wasn't enough to match the Bulldogs 84 points to our 66. Reserves Columbus Grove 46-29

LAFAYETTE

Dave Krautter led the team with 20 points and superlative rebounding Mike Waltz and Cupples flipped in 14 and 12 respectively. Also scoring was Bixel with 11 and Mike Von Stein with 7, but it wasn't enough to match the Wolves.

Reserves: 39-36

BLUFFTON

The Pirates exploded in the last quarter to break up a close game and take an 83-57 decision. Dave Krautter scored 19 points and blocked numerous shots. The team put out a good effort but not good enough to beat the Pirates.

Reserves: Bluffton 51-31

McCOMB

Panthers were too hot for the Hornets even though we tried our best effort of the season we came out short 3 points, 83-80. Mike Von Stein led with 20 points and all were in double figures.

Reserves: C-R 45-26

COLUMBUS GROVE (Holiday Tournament)

The first game we played Columbus Grove and with a good team effort we came ahead 65-59.

BLUFFTON (Holiday Tournament)

The next night we met Bluffton full force to show them whose boss. Dave Krautter was the big man controlling the boards to help us with Mike Von Stein and Terry Cupples scoring in double figures. The score ended up 52-50 in three minutes overtime.

LIBERTY-BENTON

Earl Bixel's 22 points led the Hornets to their first league victory with 22 points. Terry Cupples, Mike Waltz and Mike Von Stein added 10, 9 and 7 to finish out the remaining scoring in lopsided 65-45 contest. Reserves C-R 35-31

ADA

The team turned cold on Saturday night and took a 74-43 shellacking from the Bulldogs. Mike Von Stein's 16 led to the cause, with Terry Cupples, Dave Krautter shipping eight apiece.

Reserves: Ada 39-32

VAN BUREN

The Hornets were unable to cut down the ten point lead on Van Buren in the last three minutes of the 4th quarter and fell to them 66-63. Mike Von Stein and Dave Krautter had 20 and 19 to lead the scoring. Reserves V-B 39-32.

HARDIN-NORTHERN

Hardin-Northern's Polar Bears proved too much for the team to handle as we fell 71-61. Bright spots for the Hornets were Terry Cupples with 20 points and Earl Bixel and Dave Krautter pumped in 14 and 10 points respectively.

Reserves: H-N 45-41.

VANLUE

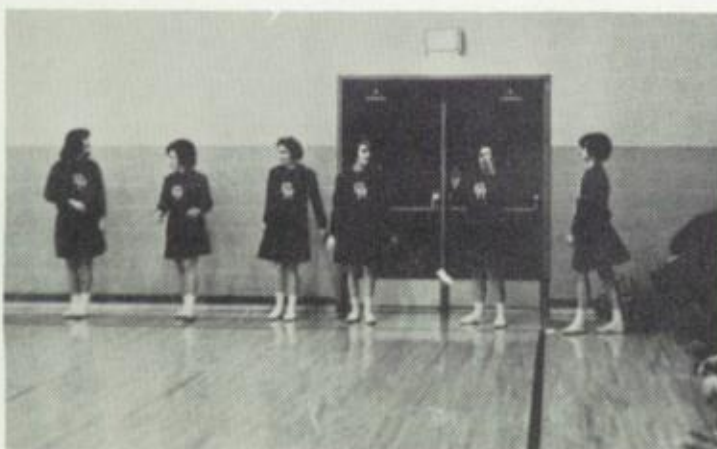

Vanlue's Wildcats proved too hot to handle as the team went down to a 74-62 defeat. Only four players scored as Earl Bixel got 21, Dave Krautter 16, Terry Cupples 14 and Mike Waltz 11. Reserves: C-R 32-27

ARLINGTON

The Hornets beat the Red Devils 71-43. Four players hit double figures with Dave Krautter scoring 20, Earl Bixel 19, Terry Cupples 18 and Mike Von Stein 15. Reserves C-R 41-38

HOPEWELL LOUDON

Hopewell-Loudon turned back the Hornets 79-65. Dave Krautter and Mike Waltz each picked up 16 and Mike Von Stein and Earl Bixel got 13 and 12 apiece but it just wasn't enough to match the Chieftains. Reserves: 43-42

Senior Class Prophecy

Hornet Village has been chosen as the site for the Country's best basketball teams to play their opening game of the 1980 pro-game season. The team consisted of Earl Bixel, Dave Krautter, Terry Cupples, Ron Taylor, and John Collins. The team had chosen this town because its the same as their high-schools nickname. Recognizing their names as former classmates I decided to buzz over in my helicopter and watch.

A fast approaching storm forced my landing in a back yard. Dashing out of the house came Ruth Ellen Reel now Mrs. Roger Badertscher.

My poor helicopter was ruined so I reluctantly called the wrecker listed as B & F Service. Ian Betts and Don Frommer appraised the damage as being minor. They said they would take the copter to the Babcock Body Repair. Jim and Roger Babcock have built a good business. Jim's telling elephant jokes really drew the customers.

I bought a paper and read, "Mayor Wayne Yoakam insists that bicycle riding in the Hornet Village high-school be outlawed." Dave Scoles, the superintendent, urged the bicycle riding because he was attempting to stress physical fitness.

The teachers of the school, Marcia Meyer foreign language, Norma Fenstermaker science, Glenda Lootens history, Nadine Harris English, Mary Ann Cole math, and Evonne Goings Religious Education teacher, had complained that some of the students were drag-racing in the halls!

The world famous musical group, the Cockroaches, planned to stop long enough at the Men's Elite Clothing Shop that was frequented only by the most famous people in Hollywood. The Cockroaches consisted of none other than Chuck Sullivan, Roger Freed, Denny Wynkoop, and their newest addition, Jerry Griggs, drummer. It seems that they just can't keep the girls away. Deciding that they really wanted to do something different, Kathy Blackburn, Barbara Kurt, Marlene Leeper, and Sharon Loy started their own business as proprietors of the Men's Elite Clothing shop.

As I passed a building I was astounded to see someone lowering himself on a rope from the 12th story window. A crowd of people were gathering so I decided to go closer. Ruth Ann Young, the psychologist, was trying to persuade a love-lost soul that he shouldn't give up hope!

Feeling rather shaken up, I hailed a taxi. As it came to a screeching stop, the driver proved to be Greg Warren. He told me had been presented the safe driving award for 1979.

Picking up my paper again I learned that many of my former classmates were working in the United Nations. Rachel Bower, Myra Bowman, Darlene Deeds, and Sharon Montgomery can take dictation at a very rapid pace. They accredited this to their former high-school days. It seems that Janis Marshall and Bonnie Nunn put their artistic minds together and designed an olive branch that covered the entire U. N. building. Karen Ridenour and Donna Redick, our ambassadors, have been able to establish good relations with every country in the world.

Seeing the hospital ahead I noticed landscapers working on the lawn. Darl and John Deeds and Dave Von Stein created a new type of grass that never grows over one-half inch tall. I learned that Edwin Zeisloft was filing a law suit with his lawyer Nelson Welch, because he had just invented a lawn mower that could be remotely controlled from an easy chair.

Coming out of the hospital for a breath of fresh air was Dr. James Steiner, formerly "Aches and Pains." He said the nurses, Diane Staley, Judy Patton, and Marilyn Nessler, were trying to calm all the patients because one patient had started a rumor that Pam Falk, a famous movie actress, had decided to give up her acting career and become a nurse in the hospital.

As I turned around a Beauty Salon across the street caught my eye. The four operators, Carolyn Ripley, Carla Osborn, Sharon Pore, and Karen Ruppright were trying to Convince the doubting Christine Rauch and Linda Orwick that their orange hair was the style.

I finally reached the school auditorium and managed to get in just before the doors closed. Sheryl Inbody, president of the Better Business Women of America announced the team had not yet arrived but we would be entertained by a comedy group called Three Stooges II, which were Marty Marshall, Ralph Schackelford, and Dave Reese. Next we were held spellbound by the trapeze artistry of Lynn Bauman, Jon Dukes, Ed Hummon, Diane Watkins, Linda Reiter, and Ruth Weihrauch. They were awarded a tremendous round of applause.

Angela Baier went back to Austria but found she missed the U.S.A. and good old Cory-Rawson so much that she too now resides in Hornet Village.

I enjoyed my visit so much I have decided to pack my belongings and make Hornet Village the home of yours truly, Barbara Von Stein.
